My Sexy Little Pole	Semi-removable	Stainless Steel	Static	7.5' to 8.5'	Multi-piece	$130	- Completely not a professional pole at all. Watching the video there was too much flex in even simple, low speed moves. More of a novelty product.
Peekaboo	Removable	Chrome	Static	7'2" to 8'6"	Multi-piece	$79	- Novelty pole only!!! You cannot climb on this pole.
Carmen Electra's Pole	Removable	Chrome	Static	7'2" to 8'6"	Multi-piece	$130	- Same company as the Peekaboo pole. - The introduction to the video states "watch a pro- pole dancer put the Electra-Pole through its paces." The video hardly demonstrates what a pro can do.

							- I feel this pole would be similar in quality to "My Sexy Little Pole."

Stripper Dance Poles	Stationary Removable	Stainless Steel Brass	Static or Spinning (spinning on Stationary only)	9' to 12' (custom sizes shorter and taller available)	One-piece or multi-piece	$292 to $495	- The removable pole looks like you can get a semi-removable option with a "smoke detector" to hide the ceiling fixture. - The removable pole looks like it needs a square pad under it on the floor.

							Pad looks awkward to dance around. - Website not very clear
